DR. STAFFORD'S LECTURE.

Dr. Stafford, who delivered a lecture on "Macbeth" at the opera house last night as the concluding number of the New Century club's course of entertainments, attracted the largest audience that ever heard a lecture in this city, and he held its rapt attention for an hour and one-quarter while he unfolded the processes of development in a naturally good man -Macbeth-who comes to be an arch-criminal. The doctor reached some dramatic heights in his rendering of some of the intensest passages and wound up with the words: "Crime, remorse, punishment,"

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

A Jermyn Young Man Killed at New Milford-Milk Men Run Down Pay-Day at theo Erie Collieries Yesterday.

Word was yesterday received of the death of Maurice Powers, a young man about 24 years of age, who was instantly killed by a fall of rock while at work in a quarry at New Milford, Susquehanna county. The deceased, until a month ago, resided in this borough. He is survived by his widowed mother and several brothers and sisters. The remains were brought here last evening. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

While peddling milk yesterday morning Milkman Harry Layman was run down by a street car and besides being painfully injured in the knee had his wagon badly damaged. The accident occurred in the vicinity of the new shaft. Mr. Layman was driving northwards and the street is quite narrow there, consequently the wheels of the wagon were quite close to the track. The car was behind him, going in the same direction, but he was unaware of the car's proximity, because of the noise made by the hoisting engine at the shaft, and before he knew what had happened he was thrown over the dash-board and the wagon almost wrecked. The speed at which the cars are run now is nothing short of criminal, and there will be something more serious to chronicle if the recklessness is kept up.

Frank Depew, the other local milkcouncil met last night and man, had a similar mishap yesterday, heavy beer wagon, which ran into the milk wagon on Main street, taking a wheel off.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mellow, who has been suffering with scarlet fever, is making satisfactory progress towards recovery.

Ellen, the little daughter of and Mrs. J. B. Cook, who has been if for several days past with scarlet fever, was much worse last evening and her condition is thought to be quite critical.

Miss Polly Solomon and Mrs. James Mann and Mrs. Deakin will leave on the 11 o'clock train this morning for New York, and will sail tomorrow on the Majestic for a trip to England. Eleazer Jenkins, of Scranton, was a visitor here last evening. The funeral of Ledyard, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Avery took place yesterday. Services were held at the house by Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The pall-bearers were six lit-

Reading Was Downed Yesterday. Scranton's Hitting and Reading's Fielding Responsible.

Reading. May 14.—Scranton's heavy hitting and Reading's poor fielding combined to give the leaders today's game. Fertsch was batted hard throughout, but Milligan was also touched up in a lively fashion. The Scranton players' fielding was giltedged, far different from the miserable showing made by the home team. Coogan and Young hit the ball hard for Reading and J. O'Brien and Milligan excelled with the stick for the visitors. The score follows:

Colliflower was back at first base again for Wilkes Barre yesterday.

Garvin pitched a fine game for Chicago yesterday and only gave New York four hits.

To Pitcher Milligan goes the dictinction of making Seranton's third home run of the season. Byers, the Jersey City catcher, had his eye on the ball in yesterday's game at Wilkes-Barre and cracked out a home run, three-baser and two singles.

Hugh Duffy is back in the game for Boston. Seles declares that while "Buck" Freeman is a good batter and fielder, Duff's brains are needed in the game.

Billy Taylor, formerly a noted base bull pitch-er, died at Jacksonville, Pla., yesterday. He vas 43 years of age. George Mackey, captain the Jones Long's Sons' base hall team, of Scranton, composed of cierks of this well know dry goods house, defeated the Invincible Pirates erday afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. The victory was well carned, as the opposing term was made up of exceptionally fine players. The excellent pitching and bravy batting of Longs' team was splendid. Sunday's ball-game at Syracuse between Syrause and Hartford was enlivened by a flat fight and Steelman, the Hartford catcher, Wrigley and Steelman then punched him. The bout was brought to a stop by the players and both men were then put out of the game by the umpire.

And the young tolks are very much interested in the work they prove the players and both men of the cantata. Reserved scats on sale Wednes day, t. a. m.
